

Ever wonder what happened to that poor girl who was a raped at the beginning of the Wife of Bath's Tale? Ever wish she had a chance to tell her own story?

Yeah, me too. She gets that chance in

The Knight's Riddle: What Women Want Most

The second installment in the Merlin Mysteries Series by Jay Ruud Published by Five Star Press

When Sir Gawain's son Florent is falsely accused of raping a young maiden, King Arthur condemns him to death. But the queen is able to forestall the execution for a time—can Merlin and Gildas prove Florent's innocence and find the real culprit in time to save the knight's life?

Available now from Amazon or from Barnes and Noble.com